

Parenting Expert Dr. Vonda Scipio Tells

How to Be Your Baby's First Teacher

Optimize Your Child's Development for Parenting Success

FROM THE START
TRAINING

When baby comes home, most new parents feel overwhelmed -- they want to help their child grow and develop, but are uncertain of the first three years' progressive stages and how they can optimize their child's development. Most wish they had a childhood blueprint!

Vonda Scipio, Ed.D., has been an advocate for children and families for 18 years. She has a doctorate in education with a focus on instruction and curriculum leadership and a concentration in early childhood from the University of Memphis. She has "hands-on" experience as a parent, grandparent, and professional educator. She has the answers for parents and educators searching for the best ways to help infants and toddlers optimize their developmental stages. Dr. Scipio is a sought after and experienced educator, trainer and speaker. Her new book, Let Babies Teach, and the included Companion Guide, Let Me Teach You, Baby is available on Amazon.com.

Dr. Scipio is available to speak to: PTA, Head Start, Boards of Education, Resource and Referral Agencies, Parent Organizations, Mom's Groups, University and College Early Childhood programs, Hospital-Lamaze classes, Ob-Gyn and Pediatric clientele, etc.

She will customize her presentation topics to accommodate your needs. Contact her today!
